Okay Pickard's new plant

By BETSY ROSSEN

Antioch village trustees, gathering as a committee of the whole for a planning and zoning meeting Monday, authorized the village board approval of a pre-annexation agreement with Pickard China.

Under the agreement, the company's request for rezoning from agricultural to light industrial use would be okayed. Pickard hopes to build a new plant on 25 acres bordered by Rt. 83 on the west, the state line on the north and Oakwood Knolls subdivision on the east.

THE TRUSTEES reviewed testimony given at the public hearing they conducted Jan. 10. Also present Monday night were Pickard plant manager Eben Morgan, co-petitioner Michael Warren, other village officials and several Oakwood Knolls residents.

A final vote is expected to be taken at next Monday's regular village board meeting.

The agreement requires a buffer zone between the plant and residential areas. Fifty feet must separate the two areas, only 30 of which may be used for parking. The remaining 20 feet is to be a screen of berm, foliage and fencing.

IN RESPONSE to residents' concern over property devaluation and trustees' sensitivity to their needs, village officials expressed the need for balanced growth.

Trustee William Seemann voiced his support of Antioch's comprehensive plan, which calls for buildup of light industrial areas. He also urged residents to think not only of individual subdivisions but also of the good of the entire village.

"We need a balance of everything," he said. "We need clean light industry. We can't just be a 'bedroom community' and survive."

Earlier in the meeting, Warren had cited villages such as Mundelein in which controlled light industry had enhanced residential growth.

Sign ordinance meeting tonight

At 7 o'clock tonight (Wednesday) Antioch's special committee will meet to finalize changes in the village sign ordinance.

The committee, composed of seven members of the village board, zoning board of appeals and plan commission, met for the first time Jan. 19. Major changes include: minimum frontage needed for a free-standing sign, copy allowed on signs and definition of sign area.

MCDONALD'S RESTAURANT owners Alex Karis and Chris Schenk and real estate agent Bruce Albinak attended the Jan. 25 village board meeting to hear results of the special meeting.

They are petitioning for a variance to the present sign ordinance in order to construct a sign 24 feet tall on frontage 111 feet short of that now necessary for such a sign.

Mayor Robert Wilton suggested they withdraw the petition because they would conform with the amended ordinance. The three decided against that, expressing concern that the amendments may not be approved.

A ZONING BOARD public hearing is required for the amendments. Trustees are hoping to make a final decision on the changes at the Mar. 7

Winter hits Antioch with all its clout

Antioch's "worst winter in history" took its toll on area residents last week.

The several-day siege of sub-zero temperatures slowed business activity and mere survival was about all most people could hope to accomplish.

The Chicago Tribune said Antioch had the lowest temperature of its suburbs, 18 degrees below zero on Friday. The wind chill factor was said to be 63 below.

RESIDENTS ALSO GOT a taste of how things were in "the good old days" when electric power went out for nearly two hours Friday night, starting at about 7:45 o'clock.

About 50,000 homes in northwest Lake County were plunged into darkness when automatic switching equipment froze on power transmission lines. Lake Villa, Lindenhurst and other nearby communities also were affected.

Lights soon flickered in many windows as residents resorted to candles.

EDWARD ROSQUIST, owner of Floral Acres just south of the village of Antioch, said the power failure cost his business between $35,000 and $40,000.

"I lost my total crop," he said. "I couldn't keep the temperature above 50 degrees and lost the plants and mums in my two big greenhouses."

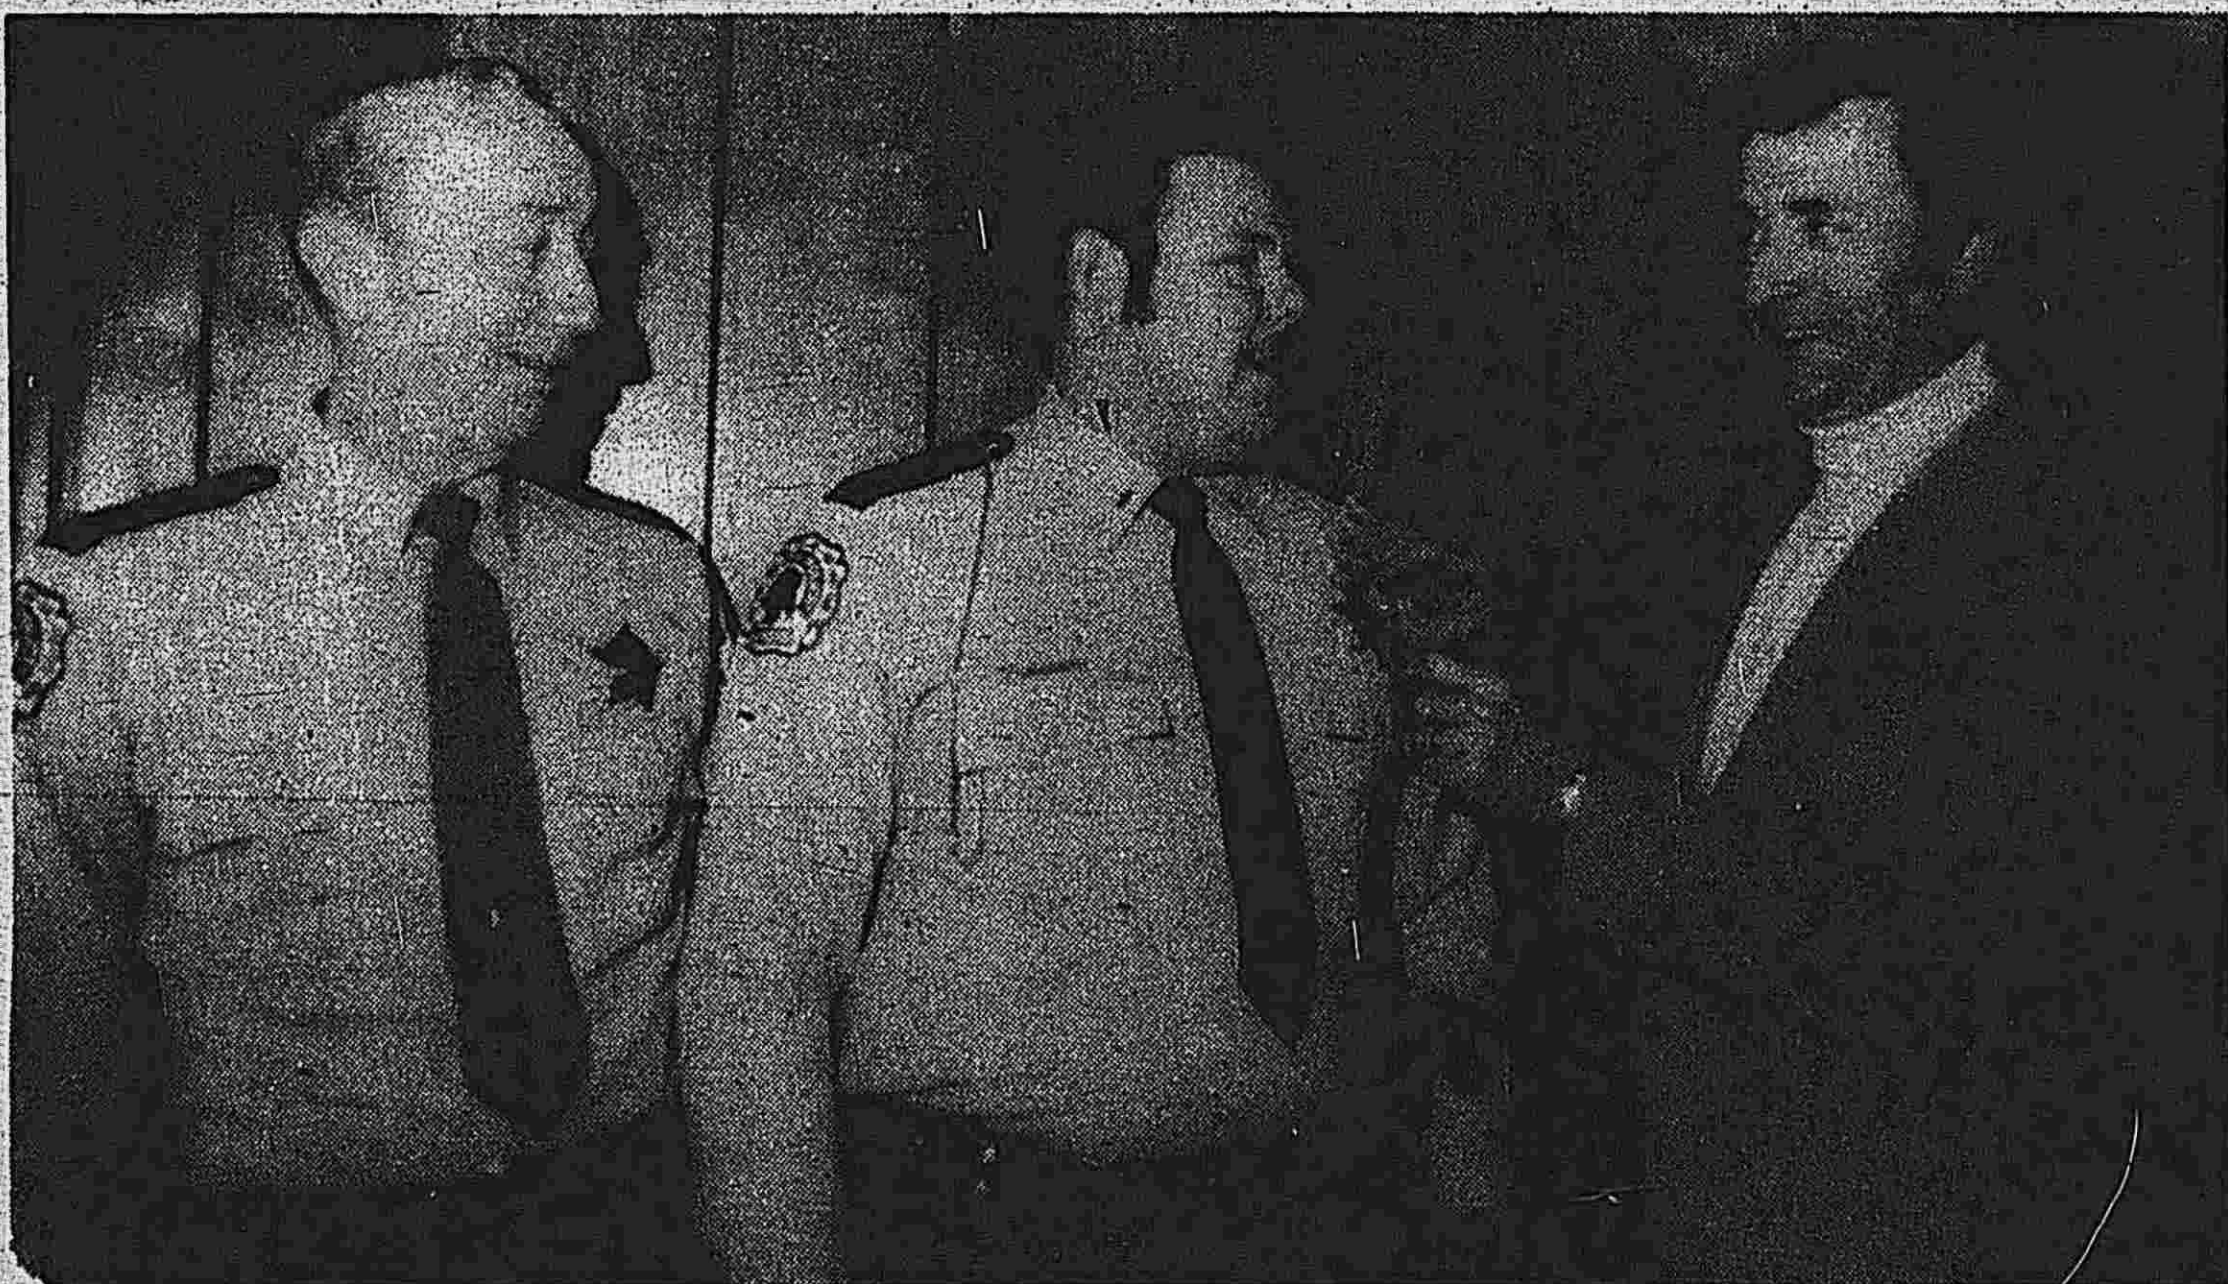

ANTIOCH'S FIREMEN were called out Saturday afternoon to battle a blaze at a home in the Shady Lane subdivision, south of West Loon Lake.

The house belongs to Robert Hunt Jr., and his dog died in the fire. The family wasn't home.

"As near as we can tell, the cause was probably electrical," said Fire Chief Tod Maplethorpe. "Damage to the house was moderate."

Commission meeting postponed

Due to a schedule conflict the meeting of the Chain of Lakes-Fox River Commission scheduled for Friday, Jan. 28, was cancelled.

The meeting has been rescheduled for 1:30 p.m., Friday, Feb. 4, at the Fox Lake village hall.

Another bad thing about not having children is that you can never look forward to the day when your expenses will be less.

PROMOTED -- Mayor Robert Wilton has the honor of pinning a badge on Antioch's new police lieutenant, Charles Miller. On hand for the occasion was Chief John Wells. Chuck had been acting lieutenant since December; before that, he served as sergeant since 1975. He became a patrolman with the force in 1967.

Frozen pipes?

One of the topics discussed at the Jan. 25 Antioch village board meeting was frozen water pipes and village liability.

Supt. of public works Walt Shepard reported that, according to state law, the homeowner is responsible from the water main to the house.

Charles Maplethorpe suggested that residents keep a tap running in a steady drip when they will not be home during extremely cold weather.

DRIFTIN' ALONG -- Though the sign posted at left says "Watch That Child," we really don't think youngsters of any age could brave last weekend's high winds, sub-zero temperatures and hugh snow drifts. Pictured is an Antioch township road in the Loon Lake area.

Lake Villa mayor won't run

Lake Villa Mayor Ted Nielsen has announced that he will not seek reelection.

Nielsen, who served for four years as mayor and eight years as village trustee, congratulated the village board on its accomplishments in the past four years.

He ended speculation that he might run for another term by telling the board members he would "not make himself available for the April election."

our hoses," Maplethorpe kidded. "All of the men wanted to go inside the house where it was warm."

ON SATURDAY MORNING the volunteer fire fighters were called to the Frank Kuechenmeister residence at 1026 Bishop St. Maplethorpe said a fireplace set a wall on fire but the damage was light.

Earlier last week there was a fire at a home on 7th Ave. in the California subdivision. Damage to the house was moderate.

Chief Maplethorpe reminded residents that, in the event of the type of catastrophe that almost happened during last Friday night's power failure, residents who need to can come to the fire station or rescue squad building.

"The village complex does have heat and has its own power system," he said. "In an emergency, we can accommodate people there."

village board meeting.

When asked whether McDonald's will build in Antioch regardless of whether it receives approval for the sign, Albinak replied, "No comment."

He added, "If management decides to pursue this location, we should be open May 1."

P.S.

A final exam paper was being graded when the teacher, to her surprise, found a P.S. scribbled at the end of the test: "The views outlined on this exam are not necessarily those found in the textbook."

Thought for today

It is easy enough to tell the poor to accept their poverty as God's will when you yourself have warm clothes and plenty of food and medical care and a roof over your head and no worry about the rent. But if you want them to believe you try to share some of their poverty and see if you can accept it as God's will yourself!

What about the victims?

By RONALD REAGAN

Last week in Utah a 10-year moratorium was broken and a convicted murderer was executed. According to some, the world will never be the same.

Just the day before the execution of Gary Gilmore, columnist Morrie Ryskind quoted another famed columnist, Franklin P. Adams, who wrote some years ago: "At the time of a cold-blooded murder, no punishment seems severe enough for the slayer; but at the time of a cold-blooded execution, no crime seems horrendous enough to warrant the penalty."

Human sympathy is aroused as the date draws near and we know that a fellow human being is going to be put to death at a prescribed hour. Those who sincerely oppose capital punishment often contribute to the emotional impact and add to the drama by emphasizing their point that we should eliminate the death penalty entirely.

IT IS A DETERRENT

My own conscience tells me that the death sentence is a deterrent and that society has a right in its own defense to take the life of those who commit murder with premeditation and planning. I don't like to use the term capital "punishment" because I think the emphasis should be on society's self-defense rather than on the death penalty as punishment alone.

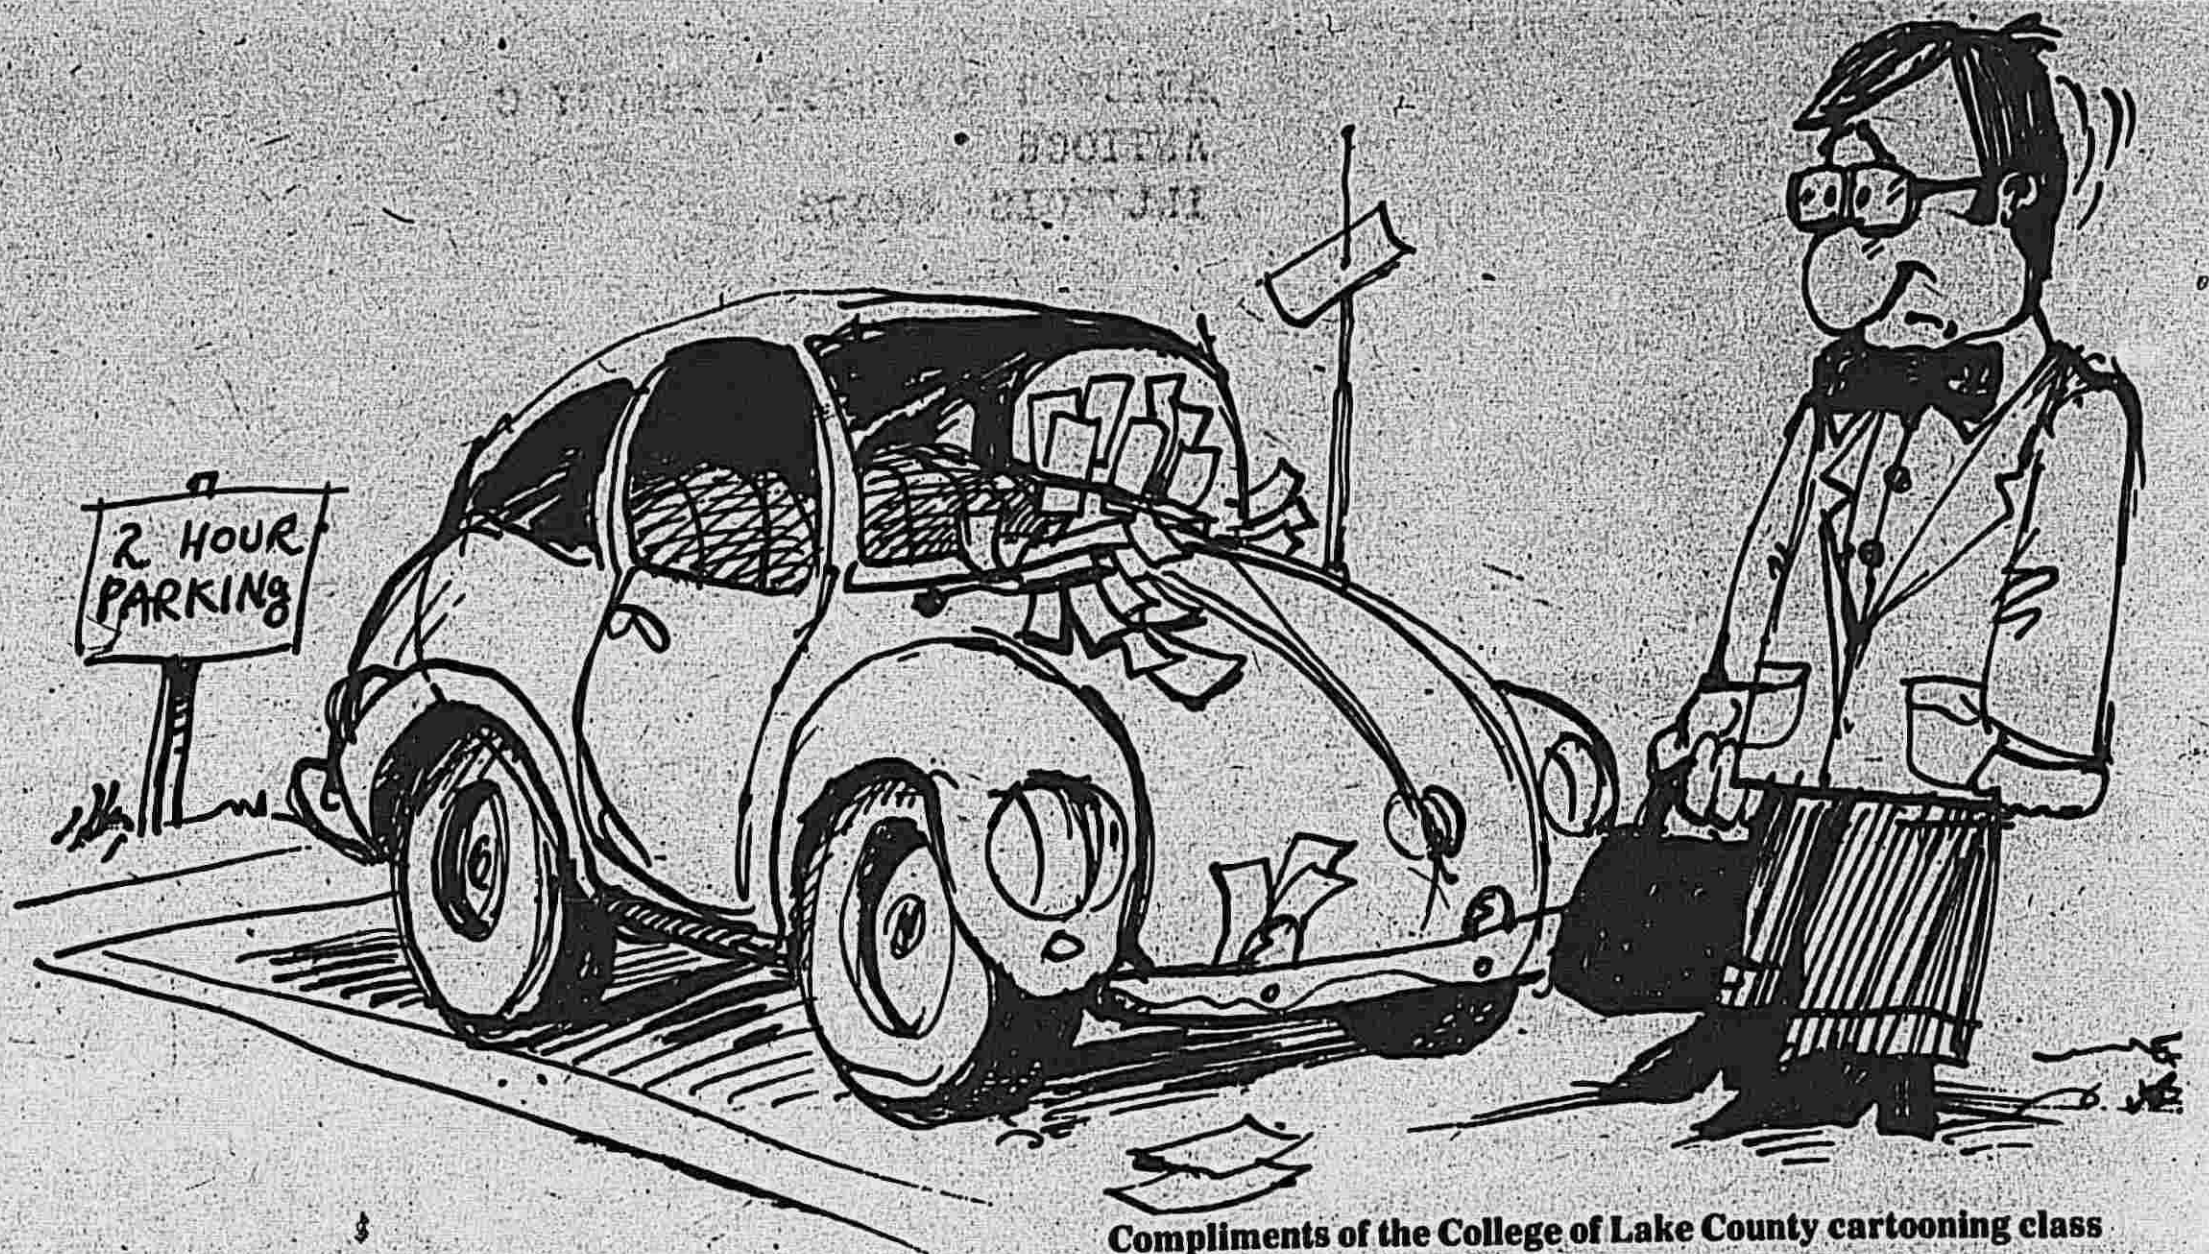

But I don't want to labor the merit or demerit of the "supreme penalty," as it is so often called. We've been through a traumatic experience with the Gilmore execution. Oddly enough, it seems, because in this case the condemned man wasn't fighting for his life, but instead wanted the sentence carried out.

Thanks to the American Civil Liberties Union and others, we now have been treated to every bit of information about Gary Gilmore's life, his habits, his views, until a virtual carnival atmosphere developed around the event. His life story will be a motion picture and who knows what other commercial exploitations will be attempted?

He is dead and I truly ask God to have mercy on his soul. But shouldn't the issue of capital punishment be determined on a less emotional basis than whether or not this one man, who confessed his crime and agreed his trial was fair, should pay the penalty that he himself said was just?

The day after the execution, one newspaper ran a photo of the execution chair on front page center and captioned it, "The place where Gary Gilmore was shot, where he bled and died." Another had a cartoonist's picture of the stone tablets Moses brought down from the mountains. They were shown riddled with bullet holes and the commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Kill," in bold black type. And, of course, the "Thou shalt not kill" referred to the firing squad.

If the debate is carried on in this way, then what about the murderer's victims? Their names aren't household words. One was a young man working in a gas station to earn his way through law school; the other, a hotel manager earning money to go back to school. Both were fathers of infant children.

They were robbed, then made to lie on the floor where they were executed with shots through the head. Why no pictures of where they were shot and bled and died? Why no pictures, no interviews of those who wept for them? Ah! But that was a long yesterday ago. The wheels of justice are turning very slowly these days.

But shouldn't we wonder a little about their thoughts, the goodbyes they would like to have said, and who wept and still weeps for them? Does anyone even remember their names?

4 are running for supervisor

They are James E. Fields of 621 Parkway, Edward Marsh of Rt. 3, Box 577, Ronald G. Martini of Rt. 5, Box 315-A, and Alfred Bianco of Rt. 5, Box 198-A.

There will be four candidates for Antioch township supervisor in the Tuesday, Apr. 5, election.

Lloyd E. (Red) Murrie, supervisor for 22 years, is not seeking re-election.

There also is a contest for township clerk. The incumbent, Llewellyn (Buster) Van Patten is running on Fields' ticket and is being opposed by Genevieve (Jean) Benes of Rt. 5, Box 364.

Mrs. Benes is vice-president of the Antioch Township Women's Republican Club and her husband, Frank, is president of the township's men's Republican club.

The deadline for filing petitions for election was Monday.

There also are four openings for township trustee and only four candidates. They all are running on Fields' ticket and include incumbents Rudy Eckert, Irv Carey, Homer La Plante and newcomer Dave Heath. Incumbent Harold Wilson is not seeking re-election.

Also on Fields' ticket are incumbent assessor R. G. (Bud) Holtz and incumbent road commissioner Blaine Ring.

A few years ago my dentist friend in Kenosha had a daughter in first grade. The teacher happened to be a lovely young lady and my friend, just for fun, would say as he dropped off his daughter at school each morning:

"Be sure and give your teacher a kiss for me."

Then one day his wife met the teacher at a PTA meeting. The teacher laughed and said:

"Be sure and thank your husband for all those kisses he sends me."

There happens to be a very pretty kindergarten teacher where my 10-year-old boy attends school.

I tell him every morning:

"Be sure and give the kindergarten teacher a kiss for me."

He blushes terribly and says, "No way. No way, man, no way!"

Oh well, let's give him another 10 years and see if his attitude doesn't change.

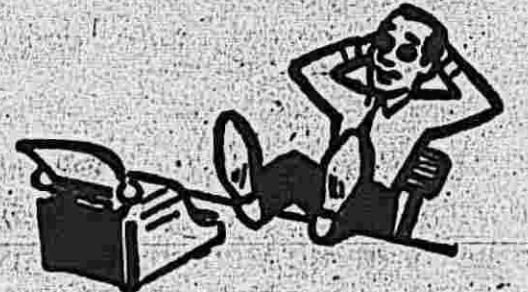

DID YOU HEAR about the Antioch man who called from Lake Geneva during last week's terrible weather?

Told his wife he was stranded at the Playboy Club and couldn't possibly get home for at least three days.

EVERYBODY IS a frustrated something.

If we had our druthers we'd rather be a stand-up comedian, preferably a Bob Newhart, but a Johnny Carson or Gabriel Kaplan would suffice.

the Pfarr Corner

Kaplan has a routine in which he says:

"The New York City school system was a real bummer ... the kids in the yearbook had pictures front and side view."

Redd Foxx would often end his act with something like:

"Just want to say in closing that if I've said anything to offend anyone -- I don't give a ---."

The reason I'm not a comedian is because I discovered, in my teens, that I had stage fright that wouldn't quit.

Ross Firestone, who wrote a book about comedians, said:

"The man or woman who can stand up before us and make us laugh is a special breed apart from the rest of us. The comedian compares to the poet in his sensitivity to the creative possibilities of language and in his ability to deploy it with precision, economy and effect."

Lenny Bruce was a stand-up comedian whose irreverence turned off a lot of people. But there is a Lenny Bruce line we'll never forget.

Editorial Comment

WE HEARD THE COMMENT that it was a good thing the temperature was below zero last week or they would have been rioting on the southside of Chicago.

The reason? The eight-night television saga, "Roots." Although it was excellent and fascinating, it dwelt on the way southern whites treated their slaves more than a century ago.

One of the inflammatory faults of "Roots" was that it pictured practically all of its whites as being vicious and evil and all of its blacks as being good.

It just isn't that way. There are good and bad people among both races.

WE DID AGREE with television columnist Sander Vanocur's hope that "Roots" may change the low level that the TV media has settled into. Said Vanocur:

"The scenes on the ship, with the slaves being chained together, stacked alongside one another, lying in their vomit and excrement, being taken on deck to be doused with salt water which burns into the wounds that have been inflicted by the lashes of a whip, are something we have never seen before. We have read about slavery. But we have never seen it, never in such painstaking detail and never being experienced with such excruciating pain.

"Television, when it sets out to portray reality, usually distorts it or just nibbles at it. I am at loss for the proper word to use to describe what television has done with Alex Haley's imagined reality. 'Enhance' will not do, nor is 'heightened' sufficient. There is no word that is adequate. All you know is that what you have seen leaves you with a terrible and quite transcending anguish.

"It is very odd. Television, which

Haley for mayor; Judy Phillips, recently appointed trustee, and Bill Seemann and Ron Cunningham, incumbent trustees seeking new terms on the village board.

Citizens Action Party maps platform

Interest began increasing for Antioch's Tuesday, Apr. 19, village election last Saturday when the six members of the Citizens Action Party met to formulate their platform.

Members of the party are Michael J. Haley, village trustee who is running for mayor; Shirley Gutowski, village treasurer who is the party's candidate for village clerk, and trustee candidates William H. Seemann, Ronald J. Cunningham, Judy Phillips and Donald H. Amundsen.

Seemann, Cunningham and Mrs. Phillips are incumbents.

Haley, Seemann and Cunningham were elected trustees in 1973 when Mayor Robert C. Wilton headed the Citizens Action Party. Mayor Wilton isn't running for re-election because he is moving to Mundelein. However, he will continue to operate Wilton's Electric Shop on Antioch's Main St.

IN A JOINT STATEMENT issued this week members of the Citizens Action Party (CAP) said: "In the future weeks the CAP, through the various media, will demonstrate its concern about Antioch and its citizens with a sound, practical and comprehensive platform.

"The Citizens Action Party feels a platform is of supreme importance because elected officials must be goal-oriented so they know what to work for and when goals have been achieved. The voters have a right to know what the party stands for and when individuals with the same priorities run as a slate, rather than independently, the accomplishment of these goals can become reality."

THE ONLY OTHER candidates who have filed petitions so far are Marilyn Sterbenz, incumbent village clerk who is seeking re-election; J. Irving Walsh, village trustee who has announced his candidacy for mayor, and Henry J. Gillman, who is running for mayor in his first try for political office. Each of the three is running independently, not as part of a ticket.

At least three others have been circulating petitions. The deadline for filing is Feb. 14.

On account of the scarlet fever scare, the school board has deemed it wise to close the school here for a week, although there are no cases in town.

On Saturday afternoon of last week the members of the Antioch Hillside Cemetery society gave their secretary and treasurer, Mrs. D. Ferris, a genuine surprise, and as tokens of appreciation of her services, the society presented her with a water pitcher and a sugar bowl and a cream cup of Japanese ware. To say that she was surprised but mildly expresses it; however, she soon collected her thoughts and made her guests most heartily welcome.

If this world is not told of Progressive Antioch and the wonderful and beautiful environs surrounding the "hub of the lake region," it will be no fault of the Antioch Business Club, members of that body agreed at the club dinner Monday night. More than 30 members attended the meeting and dinner held at the Methodist Episcopal Church, where an excellent spread was set before the banqueters by the ladies of the church.

Samuel Armonstrong of Loon Lake last Thursday was acquitted by a jury in Justice Harvey Coulson's court, where he had been brought on a charge of assault and battery. He testified that his divorced wife, Minnie, cursed and abused him and the jury apparently believed him justified.

January will go down on the records as the coldest for 15 years. No fewer than 10 days had below-zero temperatures and on one night the mercury just reached zero in its downward plunge, according to cooperative observer Roy F. Kufalk. The coldest day was the 16th: on that Wednesday the mercury dropped to 10 degrees below zero and never got above 5-above throughout the day.

Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen pinned a badge on the Rev. Edmond E. Hood of St. Ignatius' Church, who recently became the first chaplain of the Antioch Fire Department. On hand were Assistant Chief Charles Maplethorpe and Deputy Chief Clarence Shultis.

Among the Antioch Township High School faculty who participated in an exhibition last week with Antioch businessmen were: Lawrence Leon, William Seemann, Paul Kessenich, Ward Lear and Donald Chiappetta.

A part-time Antioch hair dresser, who has been jailed for an alleged swindle attempt over insured art objects, admitted Saturday that he posed successfully as a medical doctor last year in a rural Wisconsin town, according to authorities.

Campbellsport is about 20 miles south of Fond du Lac.

Russell E. Schroeder visited the tiny farm town regularly for three months last summer, according to residents.

He was welcomed as the likely replacement for an 83-year-old doctor who had remained in practice only because there was no one else to care for about 1,800 residents, they said.

Schroeder admitted the medical ruse Saturday to Detective Chris Clements of the Lake County sheriff's police, according to an investigator. Schroeder already was in jail on another charge - allegedly attempting to defraud an insurance company of $80,000 through a fictitious report of vandalism of expensive art objects.

He is to be arraigned in Lake County Circuit Court on charges of criminal damage to property, fraud and filing a false police report. He was unable to make a $35,000 bond set by a judge.

Schroeder is wanted on a fugitive warrant issued in Wisconsin for practicing medicine without a license. He hadn't been heard of since last summer.

That's when Campbellsport's only real physician, Dr. Leo Hoffman, got suspicious because his replacement failed on four occasions to show up for interviews at St. Agnes Hospital in Fond du Lac, where Hoffman sought hospital privileges for Schroeder.

Hoffman said Schroeder "could talk on medical subjects just like a doctor." However, the 100 physical examinations for the high school apparently were the extent of the newcomer's practice. Schroeder never performed surgery, administered injections, or even prescribed medicines, Hoffman said.

CLEMENTS SAID Schroeder would still be free today - an assumed victim of a burglary and vandalism - except for a misspelling of one word on an art appraisal he submitted to an insurance company a month ago to substantiate a $72,000 value he placed on two paintings.

"The art appraisal looked legitimate," Clements said. "Except that it said 'in regard (sic) to ...' rather than 'in regard to ...'"

Clements had obtained the phony art appraisal after Schroeder filed a police report claiming his

Grants for science students

Applications for 1977 Earthwatch scholarships are being accepted by the Illinois Office of Education.

Forms may be obtained from: Joyce Van Tassel, gifted coordinator, Illinois Office of Education, 100 N. First St., Springfield, Ill., 62777. They must be in the return mail by Feb. 14 to qualify for the competition.

THE SCHOLARSHIP program is open to any person 18 to 21 years old who is interested in participating in one of several scientific research expeditions. The program is sponsored by Earthwatch, a non-profit organization from Belmont, Mass., which supports field research projects primarily in archeology and the life sciences in the United States and abroad.

Ten scholarship winners from Illinois will be selected in March. National winners will be announced Apr. 18.

Top NI-Gas records

Continued arctic temperatures shattered natural gas sendout records, according to Northern Illinois Gas Company.

Gas delivered on any of the peak days is about the amount required to serve the total residential needs of a city the size of Aurora for a full year.

DESPITE THE COLD, NI-Gas expects to continue full deliveries to all 1.3 million customers regardless of the weather, explained C.J. Gauthier, NI-Gas chairman. Supplies from underground storage facilities and an SNG plant will augment regular pipeline deliveries to meet demand - barring federal allocation to other states, he added.

NI-Gas has predicted gas bills for home heating will increase by at least 50 percent this winter over last because of weather and increasing energy costs to the utility.

License plates deadline nears

Only 13 days remain for Antioch area residents who haven't purchased their 1977 automobile license plates.

The plates are on sale at the State Bank of Antioch through Tuesday, Feb. 15.

However, William E. Brook, president of the bank, is urging people to avoid the last-minute rush and buy their plates this week, if possible.

No applications will be processed without a pre-printed license renewal form.

Checks should be made payable to the Secretary of State for the exact amount of the license fee.

Address change won't be complicated: Ipsen

Last week's news that changes are planned for all of Antioch's rural addresses naturally stirred concern among some residents.

Brad Ipsen, secretary-treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce, said Tuesday that the change won't be as complicated as it might appear.

"Street names will not change," said Ipsen, who is working on the project with Postmaster Gerald Ehrhart. "They will merely be preceded by five digit numbers that will change with each mile. After an official notice, people will have one year to change their addresses for mailing purposes."

Ipsen is a member of the Antioch Rescue Squad and Ehrhart is a member of the fire department. Last week, Ipsen said, the fire department received a prank call that turned out to be a fictitious address.

With the new system, he said, the fire and rescue volunteers will know immediately if it's a bonafide address and also will be able to pinpoint the location better than under the present system, in which addresses are listed as Rt. 2, Box 390, or numbers of that nature.

Vaudeville fun at PM&L soon

Who says vaudeville is dead? It certainly is alive and well at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch, where PM&L is presenting Neil Simon's "The Sunshine Boys," Feb. 12, 18, 19, 25 and 26. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

DIRECTED BY DON BEVEROTH, it is the perfect antidote for the subzero weather and the winter blues. It promises an evening of chuckles, laughter and comedy as two old vaudevillians reunite after 11 years of separation to be a part of a television special on the history of the golden age of comedy.

The fast-paced dialog is full of "one-liners" as only Neil Simon can write. The story of two old men, their aloneness, their long-standing feud and their final retirement is said to leave audiences with a feeling of warmth, understanding and satisfaction.

DON BEVEROTH, Paddock Lake, and Tom Hausman, Antioch, play Willie Clark and Al Lewis, Larry Bersie of Wildwood plays Willie's long-suffering and faithful nephew. Supporting characters are Ricky and Hank Apostol, Ray Lewis and Dick Dyer of Antioch, and Pam Guardi of Waukegan.

Back stage crew includes ElMarie Beno as stage manager, assisted by Mary Chris LaKome and Debbie Beno. Bill Baum worked to create a dilapidated set which is Willie Clark's flat. Deane Jones is in charge of lighting.

MAKE YOUR reservations now by calling 395-3055 because seating is limited.

READY FOR OPENING NIGHT -- Ben Silverman (played by Larry Bersie of Wildwood) tries to convince vaudevillian Al Lewis (Tom Hausman of Antioch) to make a comeback. The scene is from the PM&L production of the Neil Simon comedy, "The Sunshine Boys," coming to the local stage at 8:30 p.m., Feb. 12, 18, 19, 25 and 26.

St. Peter's hopes for good turnout for blood drive

St. Peter's Church's fifth annual parish Red Cross blood drawing will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 19, in St. Peter's social center.

FOR THE LAST four years, St. Peter's parish has enjoyed the benefits of membership in the mid-America chapter of the Red Cross blood program and is covered by the Red Cross group assurance program.

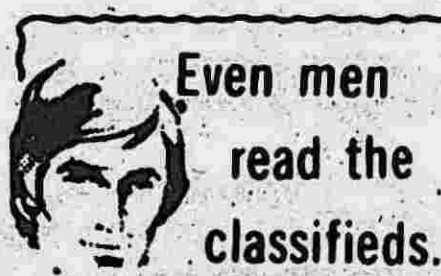

Under this program, 20 percent of the parish family units donate one pint of blood per year. The percentage (180 units of blood) is St. Peter's quota for 1977, assuring all members of St. Peter's parish, regardless of age or medical status, complete free blood coverage.

In addition, coverage is extended to family members who may not be parish members at St. Peter's, including spouses, children under 18, adult dependents living in the same house, parents and grandparents, regardless of where they live in the United States, Canada, Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands, or how much they need.

ACCORDING TO chairlady Ellen Barr Ipsen, several parishioners have made use of the program. Over the last three years 34 people have used 111 units of blood.

Volunteers will also be needed to assist with the paper work and processing of donors. Call Mrs. Ipsen, 395-2884, or Gloria Grealis, 395-1643, to volunteer your services or arrange donor appointments.

HEAR YE, HEAR YE!

The Gallup Poll has screwed up again.

Remember last year when they picked the world's 10 best dressed men and left me and Oscar Madison off the list? They didn't even come to Antioch to see how I was dressed.

Last weekend they picked the women most admired by the American people.

Are you ready for this? Betty Ford, Rose Kennedy, Shirley Temple Black, Golda Meir, Lucille Ball, Mamie Eisenhower, Barbara Walters, Joyce Brothers and Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis.

Who in the world did they poll? Certainly not the red-blooded men of Antioch, Illinois.

I HAVE CHECKED around town and the women we admire most are Sophia Loren, Farah Fawcett Majors, Jill St. John, Lindsay Wagner, Mary Tyler Moore and Suzanne Pleshette, to mention just a few.

Notice how our list puts theirs to shame?

I know what you're thinking. The women in the Gallup Poll are admired for things other than beauty.

Well, you admire what you want and we'll admire Farah.

Who are these people who are giving Gallup their information? Oh well, what can you expect from a country that gets rid of Gerald Ford as President?

WE THINK THIS comment sums up the kind of person Gerald Ford is. When asked: "If you could live your life over again, what would you want to be?" ... he replied, "Betty Ford's second husband."

REX REED, WHOSE movie review column appears weekly in the Waukegan News-Sun, is a brilliant writer and, we assume, an astute observer of entertainment.

So we were surprised Sunday night when the Hollywood Foreign Press Association showered Golden Globe awards on Barbra Streisand, Kris Kristofferson and their movie, "A Star Is Born."

Just a few days earlier Reed called it the worst movie of 1976.

"Stupid," he said. "Cacophonous and unnecessary rock and roll remake of the old potboiler that drowns in a lot of noise and body odor. Barbra Streisand looked and

They were enormous iron contraptions driven by bulky weights, usually too big to fit into anything smaller than a church steeple. sounded ridiculous trying to be Grace Slick, and Kris Kristofferson looked like the Werewolf of London stoned on cocaine and sounded like a dying buffalo. Her clothes looked designed by Lawrence of Poland, her hair looked fried in possum fat, the music was execrable, the dialogue sounded like it had been rejected by "The Gong Show." A total disaster, about as contemporary as a 1965 student riot.

Reed's nomination for best movie of 1976 was "All The President's Men." He called it:

Watergate, recreated resourcefully and with all the elements of both a literary thriller and a rousing tribute to the adventure of journalism. Alan Pakula's masterful direction pieced together an almost insurmountable problem with details and how to place them, and Robert Redford and Dustin Hoffman played Woodward and Bernstein with honesty, polish and conviction. A memorable film, historic and powerful."

Ice Fishing Derby Only 10 Days Away

By CHARLES P. RAYMAN

Interest in the 17th annual Northern Illinois Conservation Club - 885 Club Ice Fishing Derby is running high.

Record crowds are expected to take part in the 2-day event on Channel Lake, about 2½ miles west of Antioch just off Route 173 on Saturday and Sunday Feb. 12 and 13.

Because those in attendance in previous years have enjoyed themselves so much, won many fine prizes and, in general, expanded their circle of fishermen and friends, it is probable that all-time attendance records will be set.

The major winter festival, assured of near-record ice thickness due to the current cold spell, should produce excellent catches since the 1977 site is being moved about 100 yards further north to permit fishing in about 18 to 25 feet of water.

LUCKY FISHERMEN and ticket-holders will share in more than $7,500 in prizes which have been assembled at Derby headquarters.

Those present will enjoy watching winning teams of sled dog racers cross the finish line to claim their cash and trophy awards. Highly trained Alaskan, huskie and malamute sled dog teams have been entered.

The Lake Villa Sled Dog Club will supervise the racers in the highly-competitive and not inexpensive sport. Sled dogs cost as much as $1,000 with sleds, harness and other equipment valued in thousands of dollars.

All races will start and finish in front of Derby headquarters on the ice and starting time will be about 11 a.m. each day. Ice patrols will assist the racers and others requiring assistance. In addition to time and distance races, there will be weight-pulling contests for single dogs. In previous years, a winner in this event broke loose a 1,000 lb. weight and walked off with it, almost 10 times the dog's own weight.

FIRST PRIZE in the Derby is a Zenith Home Entertainment Center valued at more than $1,700 and composed of a color TV, AM-FM stereo and tape deck.

Other prizes are a trip to Las Vegas for two, a CB radio and antenna, a 10-speed Schwinn bicycle, a Jiffy ice auger, a Marlin .22 caliber rifle, a Massey Ferguson roto tiller, "His and Hers" down jackets, a Charmglo grill, an Evinrude trolling motor and a giant Schefflera plant.

Hundreds of other prizes await winners in the several fish categories, for best performance in the many adult and children's contests and for good "guesstimators" in the minnow-guessing contest.

YOUNGSTERS WILL TRY to beat each other out in the popular penny scramble where $25 in pennies is augmented by nickels, dimes and quarters. Shutterbugs will once again record for posterity the antics of the contestants.

Derby starting time each day is 9 a.m. and the first fish prizes will be presented at 10 a.m. and hourly thereafter until 4 p.m. The major prizes will be drawn at 4 p.m. on Sunday, the 13th.

The usual auction of miscellaneous household items will also be conducted prior to the main drawing.

FISHERMEN CATCHING tagged fish will receive special prizes and at this point 425 have been planted in Channel Lake, so the chances for a tagged-fish prize are good.

Hot food and refreshments will be available at the headquarters building.

Ample parking at no charge will be close at hand, either at Steve's Channel Inn, at Mark's Place (formerly Mr. Wonderful's), at Bob's Marina and other locations adjacent to the Derby site.

Warn of frostbite dangers

Frigid winter weather carries the safety hazard of frostbite, the most common injury from exposure to cold. To avoid such misfortunes, the American Red Cross encourages awareness of a few safety precautions.

SINCE THE BODY loses warmth by direct exposure to both cold and moisture, the first rule is to wear moisture-repellent material on the outside and absorbent clothing next to the skin.

In addition, loose-fitting layers of clothing build up insulation by trapping air between the layers and at the same time allow someone to shed a layer at a time, as he or she exercises or the temperature rises.

Persons who wear just a wool shirt and jumbo parka cannot adjust to different temperatures.

Constriction of blood vessels within the body usually slows down the escape of body heat by lessening the blood supply to the extremities. But the vessels in the head generally remain open so blood flow to the brain is not hampered. Because of these open blood vessels in the head, the heat will continue to rise right off the top of the head, so a hat or head covering is essential.

FROSTBITE RESULTS when crystals form, either superficially or deeply in the fluids and underlying soft tissues of the skin. The effects are more severe if the injured area is thawed and then refrozen. Usually the frozen area is small - the nose, cheeks, ears, fingers, toes.

The danger of frostbite increases when a person is tired or the body's resistance is low because of recent illness.

TO HELP A frostbite victim, according to the Red Cross, first cover the affected parts with clothing or blankets and take the person indoors immediately. Maintain respiration and warm the frozen part quickly by putting it in warm water.

Test the water first with your forearm to make sure it is not too hot. Handle frostbite gently: never rub the area with snow and never massage it. Discontinue warming after the frozen part becomes flushed, and have the victim exercise it.

Warm fluids should be administered only if the victim is not drowsy or unconscious.

REMEMBER FROSTBITE is serious and medical attention should be sought as soon as possible, the Red Cross says.

Frostbite is indicated at first by slightly flushed skin. As frostbite develops, however, the skin becomes lighter or grayish-yellow. Pain is sometimes felt early but subsides, and blisters may appear. The affected part feels intensely cold and numb.

Often the victim is not aware of frostbite until someone observes the pale, glossy skin. As time passes, there can be mental confusion, impairment of judgement and eyesight and unconsciousness. Shock develops, breathing stops and death can occur because of heart failure.

expensive paintings had been slashed by vandals. The false report also said the intruders had stolen television sets, furs and silver.

Clements said he verified extensive vandalism at the Antioch house in which Schroeder lived. The walls, furniture, and chairs also had been slashed by a knife, he said.

BUT BECAUSE OF the typed misspelling on the claim, Clements said he checked further and found the appraisal was phony. The purported $72,000 paintings actually are worth about $4,000, according to the art dealer in San Francisco whom Clements telephoned, he said.

The items allegedly burglarized later were found in the attic of the house in which Schroeder lived, Clements said.

Cary-Grove plays Antioch here Friday

3 basketball games in 5 days

By JERRY PFARR

Members of the Antioch High School basketball team woke up Tuesday morning and found themselves facing three opponents in five days.

But the prospect didn't discourage them, because they felt they could score three wins this week and boost their conference record from 4-4 to 7-4.

Last weekend's games against Wauconda and Lake Zurich were postponed because the temperatures in Antioch plunged as low as 18 degrees below zero (with a wind chill factor of minus 63, winter lovers).

It's a good thing Antioch didn't play here last Friday night, because a power failure plunged the area into darkness for about two hours, starting at 7:45 a.m. And not many fans came to the high school gym armed with flashlights.

THE WAUCONDA GAME was rescheduled for 7:30 Tuesday, after this edition went to press. Antioch was favored to win by several points.

Cary-Grove visits the Antioch gym on Friday night at 8 o'clock and that will be an important assignment for the Sequoits. Cary-Grove beat Antioch by two points in the early-season Barrington Turkey Classic, but the Sequoits have improved considerably since then and also will enjoy the home floor advantage on Friday.

Last Saturday's trip to Lake Zurich was postponed until this Saturday. The game starts at 8 p.m. and once again the Sequoits will be favored by a few points.

"IT COULD BE a super week if we can win all three games," Coach Roger Andrews said Monday.

"We'll start four juniors and one senior," the coach said. Pat Houghton is the senior and Andrews said, "Pat is really starting to come now." His shooting and all-around play were excellent in Antioch's last two games.

The juniors expected to start are Bill Dubek, the team's high scorer; Brian Andrews, an all-around excellent talent who can score, too; Tim Huebner, a good rebounder and scorer; and Tracy Sodman, another good rebounder who has an abundance of basketball talent.

Those juniors were outstanding as Antioch's sophomore team last year and now they're developing into polished varsity players.

Basketball contest was still undecided

Because last weekend's basketball game against Wauconda was postponed, when the temperature in Antioch plunged to 18 below zero, we didn't know the winner of last week's basketball contest when this issue went to press Tuesday evening.

The Wauconda game was postponed until Tuesday night, with the varsity teams expected to begin at 7:30 or 8 p.m.

ANOTHER CONTEST appears in today's Antioch News. The game of the week is Friday night's home skirmish here against Cary-Grove.

Saturday's game at Lake Zurich, postponed last Saturday because of the deep freeze, once again will serve as the tie-breaker.

Entries for the contest must be received or postmarked prior to 5 p.m. Friday. Each week, $30 worth of prizes are given to the three best forecasters.

Antioch's wrestlers seek conference title

Antioch High's varsity wrestlers, enjoying another good season under Coach Ted DeRousse, will go after the conference's north division championship Saturday.

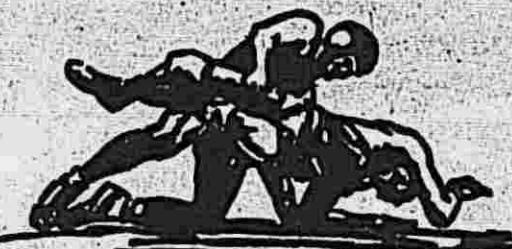

Six teams will assemble at Grayslake and three of them rank as favorites.

Grant leads the dual meet standings, Grayslake is second and Antioch third. Results of the conference tournament also count and Coach DeRousse feels the team that wins Saturday's tournament will win the championship.

Other entries are Round Lake, Warren and Woodstock.

Wrestling begins at 10 a.m. in the Grayslake gym. Survivors return at 1 p.m. and the championship matches begin at 5 p.m.

Antioch enters the tournament with a 14-3 record in dual meets. Grant is 17-0 for the season and Grayslake 15-3.

ANTIOCH HAS SOME of the top wrestlers in Lake County.

Jon Gibson, at 98 pounds, has an 8-2 record in conference matches. Bob Gossman has a 9-1 record at 105 pounds and Jeff Gross is 8-1 at 112.

There are others: Marvin Gibson has a 9-0-1 record in the conference at 119 pounds and Randy Larsen is 8-2 in the league at 126.

At 138 pounds, John Kakacek has a 23-5 record for the entire season and is 9-1 in the conference.

My parents gave me more than advice.

"When it came time for me to leave home and start life on my own, my parents gave me more than a handshake and advice. They gave me a $10,000 life insurance policy from Country Life.

"They'd paid the premiums since I was an infant. Now I'll take care of the policy. But it's at a much lower rate than a new policy.

"You know, life insurance was a nice way for Dad to help me out no matter where I make my home."
